Cedar Valley Garage Tour April 21, 2018

The one day event begins at 8 a.m., rain or shine, at 238 Waterloo Road in Hudson, Iowa...home to Bill Colwell Ford.

Registered participants will receive a required wristband, map to the 12 locations and a packet of great information about the tour hosts.

What's it cost?
10 bucks a head

So What's a Garage Tour?

When gearheads get together, the conversation seems to turn to what we are all doing with our rides and where can we go to get help with all sorts of things we'd like to get done for us. This tour will get you to some personal garages to talk with people just like you and shops that specialize in everything from body work and paint, to interiors and fabrication. Plus you'll meet others from around the state that share your interest in all things car (or truck or motorcycle or...well, you get the idea)!

We've partnered with the Hawkeye Community College Foundation to create a student scholarship for the school's automotive technology and body repair programs...so all proceeds, including participant entry fees, will be sent to HCC. So you'll be helping the next generation of gearheads get their start and seeing what's happening in the area. How cool is that!?

The first 100 registrants will receive a special packet/goodie bag and a chance to be part of drawings for door prizes that are being collected right now.

Online registration
www.cvgaragetour.com

All registrations and sponsorship funds are being directed to the Hawkeye Community College Foundation and will be used to create scholarships in both the Automotive Technology and Body Repair programs.

You can learn more about those programs at www.hawkeyecollege.edu/programs/automotive-technology

Want to write a check to pre-register? You can do that!

Checks for $10 per person made out to
