OLD BUSINESS

- Membership dues should be paid by today's meeting to avoid a late fee. Larry Hampton will check the P O Box for dues mailed in.
- The year 2025 is the 50th year of Cedar Valley Street Rods being a club. Larry Hampton showed shirts of various sizes that will be embroidered with a special 50th Anniversary logo for each member. Two patches, one round and one oval, were also available to buy for $8.00 each and can be sewn on anything you want.
- Terry Dolezal gave an update on the Travel Committee, consisting of himself and Joyce Dolezal, Dave & Lois Bailey, Bruce Cross and Ellen Becker, Larry Hampton, and Mary Markmann. Club nights out to dinner are being planned as well as day and weekend trips. A separate Events Calendar will be emailed to each member.
- Sharon Davis reported thank you notes that were received from the Salvation Army, Veterans, and Willis Dady. She had them available to read.
- Aaron Franck had flyers for the AACA Auto Parts Swap Meet at Hawkeye Downs, which includes our CVSR ad. There will be vendors on the track and in the hall. Each booth is rented for $40. You can pre-register for indoor spots using the QR code on the flyer. There will be no club booth. This is the 100-year anniversary for Hawkeye Downs.
